Classification of the Psalms

The psalms can be divided into five “books,” possibly in imitation of the five books of the Pentateuch:

1. Psalms 1-41
2. Psalms 42-72
3. Psalms 73-89
4. Psalms 90-106
5. Psalms 107-150

Tithing

Tithing means giving away a portion of one’s income, commonly a tenth. In the Old Testament, it involved paying a tenth part of one’s property as a tax to one’s superior (Genesis 14), and also giving a tenth of the fruit of the land and increase of the flocks and herds to God.

Major Sins against the Fifth Commandment

1. Intentional Homicide
2. Abortion
3. Euthanasia (mercy killing, assisted suicide)
4. Suicide

Kneeling

In the strict sense, the posture of repentance and private adoration

Luke, Martyr

Luke is called the winged ox, since he deals with the sacrificial aspects of Christ’s life and since his version of the Gospel begins with a temple scene

The Four Expressions of the Moral Law

1. Eternal law (the source, in God, of all law)
2. Natural Law
3. Revealed law: the Old Law and the Law of the Gospel
4. Civil and ecclesiastical

A hand bell

The “sanctus bell” (also known as a sance bell, or sacring bell), traditionally rung during the Mass in some places, is a practice which began in the sixth century. It was rung at the Sanctus, before the consecration (at the Hanc igitur), at the institution (three times each at the elevation of the consecrated Bread and Wine), three times before the priest’s Communion (domine, non sum dignus), and in some places again three times before the assembly’s Communion. This bell was silenced from the Gloria of Holy Thursday until the Gloria of Easter Vigil, and a wooden clapper was used instead. (A “sick-call bell” rung in the home announces the presence of the Eucharist and the service of a priest.)

The Three Dimensions of Jesus’ Prayer

According to St. Augustine, whose conclusion is, “Therefore let us acknowledge our voice in him and his in us”:

1. He prays for us as our priest.
2. He prays in us as our Head.
3. He is prayed to by us as our God.

Deacon
