Catholic Mottoes

Integral part of Catholic history, motivating the faithful. In the sampling that follows, the more common Latin original of some is noted.

Always go forward and never look back.

Fr. Junipero Serra

For the greater glory of God

The motto of St. Ignatius and the Jesuits

God Willing

DV

It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness

The Christophers

Lift up your hearts.

This liturgical phrase was common in Christian heraldry.

Praise God always

This motto was common for saints, especially monastics.

Pray and work.

The motto of St. Benedict

The Parts of the Mass

1. Introductory rites

2. The liturgy of the word

The Two Great Parts

3. The Liturgy of the Eucharist

4. Concluding rite

"The Eucharistic table set for us is the table both of the Word of God and of the Body of the Lord"

Formerly, the first part of the Mass, known as the Mass of the catechumens, was seen only as preparatory for the Mass of the faithful with its principal parts of offertory, consecration, and Communion.

Corporal

A square of linen cloth placed upon the altar and upon which is the chalice and the paten are placed (its container, when the corporal is not in use, is called the burse. Like the chalice veil, the burse is no longer in common use.)
