Incense

Origin

Frankincense, boswellia carterii, is the main ingredient in the incense used in today's liturgies. A resin produced by a family of desert trees that grow in southern Arabia, it is derived from a sap that dries, forming crystalline lumps of an amber/gold color. For Christians, it has a rich prayer and purification symbolism. From earliest Christian days, it has been associated with Christ, beginning with the magi gift (Matthew 2:10-11). Even before that, the Jews regarded its rich spicy scent as a pure offering, pleasing to God. Even beyond Judeo-Christian circles, frankincense was prized for centuries in Palestine, Egypt, Greece, and Rome not only as a way to honor gods, but as medicine and as a base for perfume.

The Grace of Marriage

1. Perfects the spouses love for one another.
2. Strengthens the spouse unbreakable unity
3. Sanctifies the spouses on their way to eternal life.

House Divided

When some said that Jesus was casting out devils by the power of the prince of devils (Luke 11:14f), Jesus said that Satan in that case would be divided against himself, and that such a house divided falls; but God's Kingdom lasts.

Incense

Purpose

Veneration is shown by incensing, as in the incensation of the altar, the Book of the Gospels, the gift of bread and wine, the assembly, and the body of the deceased during a funeral. Five grains of it can be deposited in the Paschal candle at Easter Vigil, representing Christ's five wounds. The old blessing of incense included the prayer, "Be blessed by him in whose honor you will burn."

The Three Tenses of the Memorial

Acclamation

1. Past (commemorative): "Christ has died."—The memorial of Christ's sacrifice
2. Present (affective): "Christ is risen." – the celebration of saving grace
3. Future (prognostic): "Christ will come again." – the sign of hope and pledge of glory.

The Womb of the Baptistry

The baptistry is the womb of Mary, Mother of the Church, and also the womb of Holy Mother Church whose pattern and promise is Mary. She is expectant in a kingdom yet-to-be, and fruitful in a kingdom here-and-now. At the womb of the baptistry, we encounter her, pregnant with Christ

Secular Mottoes

Annuit Coeptis

"(God) has favored our undertaking" is from Virgil's Aeneid, and appears on the reverse of the United States' Great Seal, which appears on the dollar bill. With such an application of the phrase, this country joins many others in believing that God takes special in particular societies
