Simeon's Canticle –Luke 2:29-32

Simeon's Canticle is also named after its first words in Latin. It is the song of the old man in the temple at the Lord's presentation with his request for permission to die. It is played each day by the Church as part of its Night Prayer.

Lord, now you let your servant go in peace;

Your word has been fulfilled:

My own eyes have seen the salvation

Which you have prepared in the sight of every people:

A light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Grace

Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help God gives to respond to his call. It is participation in the life of God.

Kinds of Grace

1. Habitual Grace: This sanctifying grace is the permanent and supernatural disposition that perfects the soul itself to enable it to live with god and act by God's love.

2. Actual Grace: This is God's intervention, at the beginning of conversion and in the work of sanctification.

The Evangelic Counsels

Poverty, chastity, and obedience. These three counsels of the gospel have traditionally been undertaken in a solemn way by those committed to religious life, with many monastic communities adding a vow of stability.

Jesus Teaches about Prayer

Pray in these words... (Luke 11:1-4; Matthew 6:9-13)

Pray in Secret (Matthew 6:6)

Ask and you shall receive (Matthew 7:7)

Pray in readiness for end times (Luke 21:36)

Pray for persecutors (Luke 6:28)

The power of united prayer (Matthew 18:19-20)

Persists (Luke 11:5-13)

The Prayer of the Church

The New Testament, with its proclamation of the good news of Jesus Christ, contains no lamentation prayers, so common in the Old Testament.

Kinds of Prayer I

1. Liturgical

Mass, sacraments, and the Liturgy of the Hours (The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of Church activity and power)

2. Paraliturgical

Lacking full liturgical form or official significance as determined by the Church

3. Devotional/communal

a. Group- penance services, Lenten devotions, Rosary, Stations, Prayer services, and so forth

b. Shared- individual prayer shared, as by Jesus in John 17

4. Personal/private prayer- "in secret," as taught by Jesus in Matthew 6:6

Eulogia (Greek: good speaking)

Blessing (a benediction, in apostolic days), or sometimes a blessed object (especially bread).

Months Dedication (July): Precious Blood
