The Fear of the Lord

This term, a reverence for God, is the Hebrew term for religion (see Job 28:28; Proverbs 1:7, 9:10; Sirach 1:16).

1. The object of fear of the Lord is divine justice. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Psalm 11 1:10).
2. The object of the love of the Lord is divine goodness. "Perfect love casts out all fear" (1 John 4:18)

Purgatory

Purgatory is the suffering of the faithful which causes a "purging" of temporal punishment due to sin. It is explained in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1054) as a process (not a place) a purification after death for those who are saved, so that they may achieve the holiness necessary to enter heaven.

The Three Notable Definitions of Prayer

1. St. thérèse of Lisieux: "Prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven; it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy."
2. St. John Damascene: "prayer is the rising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God."
3. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#2579): "(King David's) submission to the will of God, his praise, and his repentance, will be a model for the prayer of the people."

The Virtue of Religion

The rendering to God what is owed God in all justice

1. Adoration (the first act of the virtue of religion)
2. Prayer
3. Sacrifice (St. Augustine teaches, "Every action done for the purpose of clinging to God in communion of holiness and achieving blessedness is a sacrifice.")
4. Promises_ in sacraments, Like Baptism, Confirmation, Matrimony, Holy Orders, and in personal devotion, like a certain action, prayer, almsgiving, or pilgrimage
5. Vows- a deliberate, free promise to God about a possible and better good; a devotional act of dedication; especially the evangelic counsels, poverty, chastity, and obedience

The Main Sins of Irreligion

1. Tempting God – putting God's goodness to the test
2. Sacrilege – stealing sacred things; refers to profaning sacraments, liturgical action, persons, things, or places consecrated to God; normally refers to an action – desecration – but also to sacrilegious talk
3. Simony – buying or selling spiritual things (See Acts 8:20.)
4. Atheism – (including practical materialism, atheistic humanism) – considering humans as ends in themselves, and theories of economic and social liberation apart from God
5. Agnosticism – a "practical atheism," ideas or indifference that often refrains from formally denying God
