Why Seven?

A solar year, a lunar month, and a twenty-four-hour day are natural, but a seven-day week is supernatural. Seven is holy. Seven is magic. Seven days make a week. This was determined even by the author of Genesis—or God himself—who, in seven days or one “week,” according to the story, created the world, and rested from it. So this seven-day cycle from the beginning was religious. The Romans’ week was also seven days, named after the heavenly bodies of the sun, the moon, and the planets (five of which the Romans knew). Seven... one week’s worth of days.
