Seasons, Months, and Days

Ember Days

Originally nature feasts at the changes of the seasons (Anglo-Saxon: ymbren, running about, revolution), Ember days are three days of prayer, fasting for spiritual renewal, and blessings on the seasons and especially on the crops and harvest. Ember days come four times a year: the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of the weeks which include St. Lucia's Day, December 13 (the Third Sunday of Advent), the First Sunday in Lent; Pentecost; and Holy Cross Day, September 14. Ember Days and Ember Weeks were fixed by the Council of Placentia in 1095.

Vigil Lights

Candles are common in church; associated with a donation. Representing the prayerful vigilance of expectant faith, they are often either the large, six-day bottle candle or a smaller version in an often red, blue, or amber votive cup.

Sacrificial Giving (Part 2)

A voluntary, proportionate, systematic, sacrificial, and liturgical giving of money that is part of the larger self-giving of time, talent, and treasure.

(“Church Support” is not the same as sacrificial giving, but is a by-product of it.)

5. Liturgical—the Bringing forth of the gifts and the offering of money are both part of the same ritual act.

- Collections at other times and donations in other ways lack this Eucharistic context and don't “consecrate” hours worked and income received
- Using envelopes gives witness to commitment

6. Giving (usually divided)

- Half is given weekly by way of the local parish collection.
- Half is set aside for independent giving (mission appeals, diocesan collections, personal favorite charities, and so forth).

Pealing Bells

Two or more swinging bells, synonymous with celebration, produce a random, beautiful sound given the difference in speed and sound between lighter and heavier bells (as in the famous and beautiful St. Anne de Beaupre three-bell Angelus).

Preacher

A minister of the word of God.
