Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time is the name given to the thirty-three or thirty-four weeks (depending upon Easter) in the course of the year apart from Advent/Christmas and Lent/Triduum/ Easter. Ordinary Time is that part of the liturgical year when no particular moment or aspect of the Christian mystery is celebrated.

Ordinary Time's Two Phases

Ordinary Time has two phases, a shorter one in winter between the Season of Christmas and the Season of Lent and a longer one through the summer and fall between the Season of Easter and the Season of Advent. The pre-Lenten phase begins the Monday after the Baptism of our Lord and includes what were formerly called the Sundays after Epiphany and the suppressed Sundays of Septuagesima-/Sexa-/Quinquagesima. Ordinary Time is then interrupted on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday for the Seasons of Lent, Triduum, and Easter. It resumes the Monday after Pentecost and continues until the end of the Church year. This second phase includes Trinity Sunday (the Sunday after Pentecost), the Body and Blood of Christ (the Sunday after Trinity Sunday), and Christ the King (the last Sunday of the Church year).

Getting Ready For Lent

Shrovetide, the three days before Ash Wednesday, got its name from Shrove Tuesday, which got its name from the reconciliation sought before Lent: To shrive is to hear confession, assign penance, and give absolution. One is shriven of guilt through repentance, making these days of glad tidings, sport, and merriment before the rigors of Lent.

Saint's Day or what?

St. Valentine was from Rome and was a physician and priest, possibly a bishop. He was beheaded on the 14th of February. It could be said that it was because of his love for the Lord and his people that his name became associated with the devotion of lovers for one another, the devotion of children towards parents, and friend toward friend. There is also a story that he got into trouble with Roman authorities for celebrating the wedding of a loving couple when Roman law forbade it. People in Medieval times believed that birds paired off on February 14th and that this was the special day, according to natural law, for love to abound and triumph. What a natural time for young men and women to do the same, or at least to send a love token. And what a natural reason for "love birds" and "valentines"
