Holy Week

Holy Week is ordered to the commemoration of Christ’s Passion, beginning with his Messianic entrance into Jerusalem. The days of Holy Week, from Monday to Thursday inclusive, have precedence over all other celebrations. It is not fitting, except in the danger of death, that baptism or confirmation be celebrated on these days since they have their natural place in the Easter Vigil.

Holy Week Days

Refers to the week beginning with Palm (Passion) Sunday and ending with “Holy Saturday”. It includes the last days of Lent. Fig Sunday, this was a name for Palm Sunday because figs were eaten that day, memorializing the fig trees cursed by Christ after his entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11:12-14.) Spy Wednesday alludes to Judas agreeing with the Sanhedrin to betray Jesus (Matthew 26:3-5, 14-16).

Holy Week Mass

Special hymns for Holy Week may be found in the Liturgy of the Hours. The hymn for Night Prayer may be chosen from the Evening Prayer hymns of Holy Week. The Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all Masses, by means of the procession or the solemn entrance before the principal Mass, or the simple entrance before Mass.

Good Friday

Good Friday, and, if possible, on Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil, the paschal fast is observed everywhere to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more deeply in his resurrection. Only one Cross should be for the veneration, as this contributes to the full symbolism of the rite. For the veneration, the Cross may either be veiled or unveiled.
