Archbishop

The leader of the principal see within a particular province (region or jurisdiction unit) is called a archbishop. Bishops of the other dioceses of the province are said to be suffragan to him. His immediate jurisdiction, however, pertains only to his own diocese. He is often called a metropolitan if he is an ordinary (and not merely titular or auxiliary) because of the importance of his see city.

The Church as House of God

To enter the house of God, we must cross a threshold, which symbolizes passing from the world wounded by sin to the world of the new Life to which men are called. The visible church is a symbol of the Father's house toward which the People of God is journeying and where the Father "will wipe every tear from their eyes."

European Co-Patrons

Pope John Paul II named Saints Cyril and Methodius co-patrons of Europe, along with Beloved Benedict. Until recently, all the nations where these two evangelists and pastors brought the gospel and ministered were behind the Iron Curtain. They are the apostles of the southern Slavs, fathers of the Slavonic liturgy, and patrons of Christian unity. From the capitals of the Greek alphabet, they invented the Cyrillicglagolitic alphabet as a conveyor of the Byzantine liturgy and the Bible to the Serbs, Bulgarians, Ukrainians, and Russians.

Indulgences

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.
