3 Stages in the Formation of the Gospels

The life and teaching of Jesus: Jesus’ actual words and deeds. The oral tradition: After the ascension, the apostles with fuller understanding handed it on. The written Gospels: The sacred authors took certain of the many elements which had been handed on, at times explaining or synthesizing in light of the situation of the churches.

The Church as House of God

To enter the house of God, we must cross a threshold, which symbolizes passing from the world wounded by sin to the world of the new Life to which men are called. The visible church is a symbol of the Father’s house toward which the People of God is journeying and where the Father “will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

The Mission of the Church:

Message: The proclamation of the good news, the core of which is that Jesus who died is risen and now lives among us. Distinct from the teaching mission. Fellowship: The responsibility of Jesus’ followers for a visible demonstration of what they are proclaiming in the message. The building of Christian community in the bond of faith, hope, and love. Service: The act of healing and reconciling, of binding up wounds and restoring health, with the example and power of Jesus.

Indulgences

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.
