The Most Holy Trinity

There is only one God in three Persons: "it is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds" and in their relations with one another, they are stated to be one in all else, co-equal, co-eternal and consubstantial, and each is God, whole and entire. Accordingly, the whole work of creation and grace in Christianity is seen as a single operation common to all three divine persons, in which each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, so that all things are "from the Father", "through the Son" and "in the Holy Spirit."

The Church as House of God

To enter the house of God, we must cross a threshold, which symbolizes passing from the world wounded by sin to the world of the new Life to which men are called. The visible church is a symbol of the Father's house toward which the People of God is journeying and where the Father "will wipe every tear from their eyes."

Mother Of God

"Mother of God", Mary's oldest title, celebrated on the January 1st solemnity, was established in 431 by the Council of Ephesus which, in defending Mary's divine maternity, was clarifying Christ's true nature. Nestorius, the bishop of Constantinople, maintained that there were two distinct Persons in the incarnate Christ, one human and the other divine. True faith, on the other hand, believed in a "hypostatic" union of the two natures in the one Persons of Jesus and thus could say, as believers still do, that the Sons of God was born of Mary, that he was crucified, and that he died.

The Mission of the Church:

Message: The proclamation of the good news, the core of which is that Jesus who died is risen and now lives among us. Distinct from the teaching mission. Fellowship: The responsibility of Jesus' followers for a visible demonstration of what they are proclaiming in the message. The building of Christian community in the bond of faith, hope, and love. Service: The act of healing and reconciling, of binding up wounds and restoring health, with the example and power of Jesus.
