Confirmation

The Bishop (the ordinary ministry) extends hands over the confirmands, signifying the gift of the Spirit, and prays a prayer invoking the Spirit. The essential rite follows, that is, the anointing with chrism on the forehead, which is done by the laying on of the hand and the words: “N., be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.” The effects of Confirmation: roots us more deeply as a child of God, unites us more closely to Christ, increases in us the gifts of the Holy Spirit, perfects our bond with the Church, and gives us special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread & defend the faith by word & action as true witness of Christ, to boldly confess the name of Christ, never to be ashamed of the Cross.

The Church as House of God

To enter the house of God, we must cross a threshold, which symbolizes passing from the world wounded by sin to the world of the new Life to which men are called. The visible church is a symbol of the Father’s house toward which the People of God is journeying and where the Father “will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

Mother of God

“Mother of God”, Mary’s oldest title, celebrated on the January 1st solemnity, was established in 431 by the Council of Ephesus which, in defending Mary’s divine maternity, was clarifying Christ’s true nature. Nestorius, the bishop of Constantinople, maintained that there were two distinct Persons in the incarnate Christ, one human and the other divine. True faith, on the other hand, believed in a “hypostatic” union of the two natures in the one Persons of Jesus and thus could say, as believers still do, that the Sons of God was born of Mary, that he was crucified, and that he died.

Ordinary Time’s Two Phases

Ordinary Time is the name given to the thirty-three or thirty-four weeks (depending upon Easter) in the course of the year apart from Advent/Christmas & Lent/Triduum/Easter. Ordinary Time is that part of the liturgical year when no particular moment or aspect of the Christian mystery is celebrated. Ordinary Time has two phases, a shorter one in winter between the season of Christmas and the season of Lent and a longer one through the Summer and Fall between the season of Easter and Advent. The Pre-Lenten phase begins the Monday after the Baptism of our Lord and includes what were formerly called the Sundays after Epiphany and the suppressed Sundays of Septua.
