To be a Priest

Being a "Priest" is classified within the four most difficult professions in the World because a "Priest" must be:

- Preacher
- example
- adviser
- speaker
- planner
- project
- manager
- Minister
- mentor
- friend
- father of all
- reconciler
- marriage counselor
- youth counselor
- leader training
- teacher of the Bible
- intercessor, humble, brave, prudent, sacrificed, penitent, balanced, etc ...

In addition to being:

- temple porter
- driver of the brothers
- praise leader
- the first to arrive and the last to leave

To be a Priest Continued...

Every "Priest" constantly faces criticisms such as:

- the mass does not fill me
- the sermon is very long
- He is unfriendly
- He is superficial
- I do not like him
- What is he saying?
- Why do you not do this?
- Why do this?
- Etc etc...

One of the hardest things in the life of a "Priest" is knowing that the people they love will betray him.

Ordinary Time's Two Phases

Ordinary Time is the name given to the thirty-three or thirty-four weeks (depending upon Easter) in the course of the year apart from Advent/Christmas & Lent/Triduum/Easter. Ordinary Time is that part of the liturgical year when no particular moment or aspect of the Christian mystery is celebrated. Ordinary Time has two phases, a shorter one in winter between the season of Christmas and the season of Lent and a longer one through the summer and fall between the season of Easter and Advent. The Pre-Lenten phase begins the Monday after the Baptism of our Lord and includes what were formerly called the Sundays after Epiphany and the suppressed Sundays of Septua.
