Principles of Social Justice

Society ensures social justice by fostering the conditions by which persons and associations receive their due.

1. Respect for persons
2. Equality and diversity of persons
3. Human Solidarity—revealed in
 - The just distribution of goods
 - The just compensation for labor
 - The just negotiation of conflicts

Angels

Heavenly beings, genderless, of a fixed population, who neither marry nor are given in marriage (Mark 12:25); distinct from saint (which humans may become); mentioned nearly 300 times in the Bible.

The Glory of Jesus

These experiences are apart from the exceptional and unique post-ascension appearance to Paul

1. Revealed—in the resurrection
2. Veiled—in the post-resurrection appearances
3. Exalted—in the ascension to the Father's right hand

The Transfiguration of the Lord

The transfiguration of Jesus is described in the New Testament when Jesus is transfigured and becomes radiant in glory upon a mountain. Jesus and three of his apostles, Peter, James, John, go to a mountain (the Mount of Transfiguration) to pray. On the mountain, Jesus begins to shine with bright rays of light. Then the prophets Moses and Elijah appear next to him and he speaks with them. Jesus is then called "Son" by a voice in the sky, assumed to be God the Father, as in the Baptism of Jesus.

Obligations

Formerly, fast days consisted of all Lenten days except Sunday. Fast and abstinence days were Ash Wednesday, Lenten Fridays, and Saturdays, Ember Days, and the vigils of certain feasts. Current practice reflects the 1966 instructions of Pope Paul VI's constitution Paenitemini in which:

1. The meaning of fasting was emphasized.
2. The obligation was restated.
3. The extent of the obligation was changed.
4. The universal fast and abstinence days, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, were confirmed.
5. Some other act of penance should be followed on Fridays if abstinence from meat is not practiced.
6. Specific regulations were left to bishops in their Episcopal conferences.
