The Seven Words of Mary

The Scriptures record Mary speaking seven times.

1. "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" Luke 1:34
2. "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Luke 1:38
3. "Mary entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth." Luke 1:40
4. "My soul magnifies the Lord..." Luke 1:46f
5. "Child, why have you treated us like this?" Luke 2:48
6. "They have no wine." John 2:3
7. "Do whatever he tells you." John 2:5

Rood screen

An ornamented altar screen, usually surmounted with a crucifix, separating the sanctuary from the body of the church. Properly, "rood" (rod) is the crucifixion cross (crucifix) which was originally enshrined on the stone or wooden screen. This came to be ornamented with saintly statuary and symbols

The Jesus Prayer

This ancient Eastern Christian contemplative prayer invokes the name of Jesus, the only name in the world given us by which we are to be saved. Developed by the Desert Fathers, it consists of short phrases from the Scriptures which are repeated interiorly with attention to Christ's presence until prayer becomes one with breathing and the Lord makes a house within.

Obligations

Formerly, fast days consisted of all Lenten days except Sunday. Fast and abstinence days were Ash Wednesday, Lenten Fridays, and Saturdays, Ember Days, and the vigils of certain feasts. Current practice reflects the 1966 instructions of Pope Paul VI's constitution Paenitemini in which:

1. The meaning of fasting was emphasized.
2. The obligation was restated.
3. The extent of the obligation was changed.
4. The universal fast and abstinence days, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, were confirmed.
5. Some other act of penance should be followed on Fridays if abstinence from meat is not practiced.
6. Specific regulations were left to bishops in their Episcopal conferences.
