Why Did God not Prevent Adam and Eve from Sinning?

- St. Augustine: “Almighty God, because he is supremely good, would never allow any evil whatsoever to exist in his works if he were not so all-powerful and good as to cause good to emerge from evil itself.”
- St. Leo the Great: “Christ’s inexpressible grace gave us blessings better than those the demon’s envy had taken away.”
- St. Thomas Aquinas: “There is nothing to prevent human nature’s being raised up to something greater, even after sin; God permits evil in order to draw forth some greater good.”
- St. Paul: “Where sin increased, grace abounded all the more.”
- The Church, singing the Exultet at the Easter Vigil: “O happy fault, which gained for us so great a Redeemer!”

South American Last Supper

It was especially common in Mexico and South America for the Last Supper to be re-enacted in church, with the presiding priest and twelve men in period dress exchanging the dialogue as recorded in the Gospel.

The Jesus Prayer

This ancient Eastern Christian contemplative prayer invokes the name of Jesus, the only name in the world given us by which we are to be saved. Developed by the Desert Fathers, it consists of short phrases from the Scriptures which are repeated interiorly with attention to Christ’s presence until prayer becomes one with breathing and the Lord makes a house within.

Obligations

Formerly, fast days consisted of all Lenten days except Sunday. Fast and abstinence days were Ash Wednesday, Lenten Fridays, and Saturdays, Ember Days, and the vigils of certain feasts. Current practice reflects the 1966 instructions of Pope Paul VI’s constitution Paenitemini in which:

1. The meaning of fasting was emphasized.
2. The obligation was restated.
3. The extent of the obligation was changed.
4. The universal fast and abstinence days, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, were confirmed.
5. Some other act of penance should be followed on Fridays if abstinence from meat is not practiced.
6. Specific regulations were left to bishops in their Episcopal conferences.
