Novena

A prayer with a specific intention offered nine days in a row, originating in the nine (novem) days of prayer by the disciples and Mary between the Ascension and Pentecost. Many novenas have been highly indulged by the Holy See over the centuries. A "novena of grace" was traditionally in March. A "Christmas Novena" begins December 16 and honors the mystery of Christmas. Today the recommended (and only scriptural) novena is the one before Pentecost.
