“No! No! It is a Sin!” by Fr. Richard J. Rego

St. Maria Goretti, Model for Youth

What a model St. Maria Goretti is for the youth of today! Maria is a model both for young and old. God wants to be put first! St. Maria did exactly that-she put God first! She could have rationalized that “what two consenting adults do together is their business, as long as nobody gets hurt.” She knew that, having been forced against her will, little or no personal guilt would have been her’s. Yet, Maria was keenly aware that all sin is an offense against God. Therefore, she, in no way, would cooperate. She chose to resist rather than compromise her purity. Maria Goretti preferred death instead of being part of an act that was offensive to God! Out of love for Jesus Christ, Maria said “NO” at the cost of her life! Maria loved the Lord and she proves it!

Divinely Revealed Realities

To be truly Catholic, one must be obedient to God’s Revelation. This is true both of Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition. The Second Vatican Council teaches that: The obedience of Faith must be given to God who reveals, an obedience by which man commits his whole self freely to God, offering the full submission of intellect and will to God.
