“No! No! It is a Sin!” by Fr. Richard J. Rego

One of the great challenges facing the church in our time is that of giving our children the full, life-giving teaching of the Gospel. It is a great challenge because the voices that are vying for the attention of youth today are numerous, loud, and most often detrimental to their spiritual and physical health.

So often the commercial assault on youth is proposed as an exaltation of unhindered freedom to choose whatever “seems ok” to the individual. The atmosphere of our society is so often interested in selling products and styles, that the consequences of “unfettered freedom” are forgotten or denied. Perhaps the greatest difficulty we face as a church and as a society is to state clearly that unhindered freedom is no freedom at all; that it is, in fact, a form of slavery-slavery to passion, appetite, lust and greed.

Freedom is in Christ! This must be the rallying cry of Christians. Christ, in return, must be proclaimed authentically as the Incarnate Word of God challenging us all to freedom in love, freedom in Christ. Sexual morality is not something Christ Jesus avoided teaching about, nor can it be avoided by those who would teach His name.
