“No! No! It is a Sin!” by Fr. Richard J. Rego

“You are my Friends”

Avoiding the occasion of sin, modesty, moderation in recreation, constant prayer-these terms are not popular these days. Yet, this is the vocabulary of God’s friends. At the last Supper, Our Lords said: “I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know what his master is doing. I now call you friends.” (Jn 15:15). The friend of Jesus must give witness to the world of that friendship. This is especially true of the youth of today since Jesus has few friends among the young.

The occasion of sin is any person, place or thing that could lead one into sin. This means avoiding bad company-friends that lead one into sin. This means not going to concerts that inflame and arouse the passions. It means turning off suggestive and immodest television programs and not listening to provocative recordings. Avoiding the occasion of sin means not indulging alcoholic beverages or drugs. It means avoiding anyone or anything that could cause one to offend our Friend Jesus by sin.
