“No! No! It is a Sin!” by Fr. Richard J. Rego

The Magisterium of the Church

The First Vatican Council teaches that: “All those matters must be believed with divine and Catholic faith, as divinely revealed, that are contained in the word of God, whether in Scripture or Tradition, and that are proposed by the Church, either by a solemn decision or by the ordinary and universal Magisterium (that is, the Church’s Teaching Office).”

The Second Vatican Council echoed this teaching: “Bishops, teaching in union with the Roman Pontiff, are to be venerated by all as authentic witnesses of divine and Catholic truth. In matters of faith and morals, the bishops speak in the name of Christ and Catholics are to accept their teachings and adhere to it with a religious assent.”

“All United one in the Love of God”
“TODOS UNIDOS UNO EN EL AMOR DE DIOS”
