Advent

Advent is the season of expectation of the Christ, and it is somewhat penitential in tone. It is four weeks long, or slightly less, the first two focusing on Jesus' final coming as Lord and judge. The final eight days anticipate his coming in history (Christmas). Since the tenth century, the first Sunday in Advent has marked the beginning of the Church year in the West. (The Third Sunday of Advent, traditionally named Gaudete Sunday, expresses a joyful note of anticipation in the season).

Our Lady of Guadalupe

According to tradition, Mary appeared to Juan Diego, who was an Aztec convert to Christianity, on December 9 and again on December 12, 1531. She requested that a shrine to her be built on the spot where she appeared, Tepeyac Hill. The bishop demanded a sign before he would approve construction of a church, Mary appeared a second time to Juan Diego and ordered him to collect roses. In a second audience with the bishop, Juan Diego opened his cloak, letting dozens of roses fall to the floor and revealing the image of Mary imprinted on the inside of the cloak—the image that is now venerated in the Basilica of Guadalupe. We celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12th.
