Holy Week

Holy Week is ordered to the commemoration of Christ's Passion, beginning with his Messianic entrance into Jerusalem. The days of Holy Week, from Monday to Thursday inclusive, have precedence over all other celebrations. It is not fitting, except in the danger of death, that baptism or confirmation be celebrated on these days since they have their natural place in the Easter Vigil.

Good Friday

Good Friday, and, if possible, on Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil, the paschal fast is observed everywhere to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more deeply in his resurrection. Only one Cross should be for the veneration, as this contributes to the full symbolism of the rite. For the veneration, the Cross may either be veiled or unveiled.
