The Good Shepherd

The Good Shepherd is an image used in the periscope of John 10:1-21, in which Jesus Christ is depicted as the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for the (His) sheep. What does it mean when it says the Lord is my shepherd? The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. This sets up an explicit metaphor in which humanity is a flock of sheep tended by God.

Prayer before Mass

Heavenly Father, we seek to be the sheep of your holy pasture. As we dedicate these offerings, help us to examine carefully the deepest recesses of our own hearts. Guide our ways so that we may share abundantly your love and your compassion with those seeking your pasture. We pray in the name of the Risen One. Amen. John 10:1-10
