Reflection:

There is a blessedness in those servants that when the Lord Jesus Christ returns he finds them doing precisely what he told us to do. When we are people who listen to sermon after sermon, year after year, and do not put into practice what God teaches us, and if we have heard what the will of God is for the life of the believer, then we will receive more scourge, for being servants bad, as it says in Luke 12:47 "The servant who, despite knowing the will of his master, does not prepare himself to carry it out, becomes the recipient of many stripes." There are different degrees of punishment in hell, although we live in a time that we do not receive this teaching constantly, sects take advantage of it that proclaim that hell does not exist, because they say how a good God, full of love, will eternally punish his children;
