 «No temas, María,

Reflection:

The role of Our Lady in the history of salvation is unique. However, the same is true for each of us on a smaller scale. The Lord is with each one of us and we have found favor with God, and he has a mission for us to fulfill.

Our Lady is the supreme example of obedience to the will of God. Every day of our lives we are invited to unite with Mary by saying: "Here I am, the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word " This scene is the image of what a good prayer means. God comes to visit me through a messenger, a line from Scripture, an event, a memory. I entertain God, God takes the initiative and welcomes me, surprisingly as "his favorite". How does it feel to be "God's favorite"? God has something in mind for me to do. Like Mary, I will be the bearer of the good news for others, and the Holy Spirit will help me. God awaits my answer. If I say "Yes!" God's work in our world will move forward. Like her, I dare to say: "Here I am, the servant of the Lord, let it be done to me according to your words." It is all so simple, and yet so incredible.
