NUESTRA MISIÓN

"All United one in the Love of God"
"Todos Unidos UNO en el Amor de Dios"

Reflection:

Jesus is the Beloved Son." What this scene tells us is that we as a Church have to live listening and living the gospel every day.

Today we see how Jesus finds it difficult to reach the men and women of our time. Many have left religious practice, others have not heard of him and may never know him, nor do they approach the parish communities, the church, in short, because they only see indoctrination and, on many occasions, lack of love. However, we who call ourselves followers of Jesus, whether we belong to the Church or not, have to continue announcing his Word, we have to make it credible with our testimony of life, giving love wherever we are, extending our hands to be supportive and encouragement of the most disadvantaged.

We, as Christians, must read the Scriptures, become familiar with them, know them, practice them and begin to change a practice that is often empty, for a practice that shows that our following is a renewing following, full of light and hope, because in this way we will discover and help others to discover that the Good News is valid today and always, and its strength is truth and love. Let yourselves be transfigured by the love of God and be happy!
