Reflection:

An ancient tradition, based on the intuition of the union between them, and not on Scripture, is that Jesus appeared first to his mother. An old Irish poem addresses her: Queen of queens, O Wonder of woman's beauty, Heart that has kept the wrath of God against us, Strong staff of light and guardian of the Precious Child, pray for us to May we be forgiven. In a simple way, like eating a fish, the disciples saw with the eyes of Faith. He is showing them, in a simple way, that He is the same Lord that they knew in previous days. The Lord of Easter is called the Lord of Faith. We are blessed because we believe, even though we cannot see. Lord, I believe; increase my faith.

Join this walk in your prayer. Walk with the disciples and share their fear and anxiety, as well as feeling disappointed. Feel their hope that the promise He made to them would be fulfilled. What could you receive with this? The darkness and the light, shared in this walk, hour by hour, with the Lord of Light. Walk and listen; let Jesus remind you of the Scriptures that bring us confidence, confidence and peace.

In our relationship with Jesus, we are tempted to see him as a ghost. But, as he tells his disciples, he is flesh and blood, just like us. You know what we are made of. He shares everything we experience, and offers us a part of everything he experiences, including his Resurrection.

Jesus had told His disciples that when they met in His Name, He would be in their midst. His Presence brings peace and drives away fear. May I give me that peace? Do I recognize fear as the opposite sign? His Resurrection breaks down all barriers, removes all divisions - in us. between us and others, between us and God. His true disciples are ambassadors of reconciliation in all ages. Who do I need to reconcile with? Am I a source of divisions or unity with others? Do others find, through me, the power of their Resurrection?
