Reflection:

In this lyrical text, Jesus introduces us to the great mystery of God by sharing his life with us: I am the vine and you are the branches... My Father is the vinedresser. The life that passes through the Holy Trinity is the same life that runs through my veins. The grapevine is a special tree, in which the distinction between the trunk and the branches is more difficult to discover than in other trees. God shares his own life with me. I spend time wondering and grateful, asking to be worthy of that grace. Remain in me as I live in you ... those who remain in me and I in them bear much fruit, because far from me they cannot do anything. This is the advice that Jesus gives us on the eve of his passion, his final message within the intimacy of the circle of his dearest friends. I let that invitation resonate in my heart, asking for the grace to grow in my intimacy with Jesus, my Savior, so that my life bears much fruit.

Today I am invited to acknowledge my close relationship with Jesus, which He compares to the relationship between a vine and the branches that grow on it. What does it mean for my life, that the life of Jesus flows within me? What does it mean to me personally that I am both a part of Jesus and the branch that is part of the vine? Are there things in my life that would have been different if I had consciously known this? Which would be? I reflect on those things, talk to Jesus about them, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide and enlighten me.

"Without me, you can't do anything." We can remember our total dependence on Christ for life and love. Remember her many gifts through the years and ask for more. The Father polishes us, working deeply in our hearts to bring us closer to Him in Christ. Am I resisting your efforts? Let us ask for the gift of being open to his work of polishing us.
