Reflection:

In today's message, the gospel is a command: "Proclaim the Good News to all Creation"; to all. Again God is no respecter of persons, he wants everyone to be saved, his Gospel is for everyone and his Grace can reach everyone. Therefore, in our daily lives, we must bring the good news of the resurrection to our environment, without expecting anyone to congratulate us or tell us how good we are, this remains between us and God, and the graces poured out are gifts from God for all the creation. Let us not be the ones who are respectful of persons, let us treat everyone the same. "Faithful to the Master's model, it is vital that today the Church goes out to proclaim the Gospel to all, in all places, on all occasions, without delay, without disgust and without fear. The joy of the Gospel is for the whole people; it cannot exclude anyone. Announcing implies being docile to the voice of the Holy Spirit, who sets us on the path and gives us strength. To announce is to open your mouth, open your life and your heart to share something that is greater than ourselves, the Good News of salvation. So let's ask ourselves: How am I announcing Jesus today?"
